

SENATE JOURNAL

SIXTY-SEVENTH LEGISLATURE - REGULAR SESSION

AUSTIN, TEXAS

PROCEEDINGS

FIRST DAY

(Tuesday, January 13, 1981)

In accordance with the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas, the Senate of the Sixty-seventh Legislature met in the Senate Chamber of the State Capitol on Tuesday, the thirteenth day of January, 1981, at 12:00 o'clock noon.

The Honorable William P. Hobby, Lieutenant Governor and President of the Senate, called the Senate to order.

The Reverend Jack D. Heacock, First United Methodist Church, Austin, offered the invocation as follows:

Dear Father:

Since you made us all, and we are Your children,
Help us to act like brothers and sisters.

We are ordinary people
Gathered in extraordinary circumstances
To help create laws
That will touch on every living creature in this great state:

Lobbyists and lumbermen
Oilmen and office workers
Herefords and Santa Gertrudis
Longhorns and Aggies
Highland Parkers and Dime Boxers
Lawyers, doctors, engineers,
Cotton pickers, road builders, migrant workers
Corporate giants and dependent children of the unemployed
Armadillos and whooping cranes.

When You came into the world in person,
You deliberately chose to enter through a poor family:
Mary and Joseph...who had such little clout
That they could not afford advance reservations at the Bethlehem La Quinta.

When the back rooms begin to fill with smoke
And the Lobbyist buffets bulge our waists and dull our sensitivities...
And when pressures and deadlines push us to the breaking point...

Remind us that Your ultimate and resolute involvement in history
Always comes down on the side of

Love, Justice and Mercy
Especially for the poor...the lame...the undocumented alien...
The oppressed...those with handicapping conditions... the fatherless.

And when we find it uncomfortable to live with Your priorities,
Perhaps we will not so lightly invite You to be present among us.

But here we are, all set to go.

Bless the members of the Senate, the Lieutenant Governor, the Lobbyists, their secretaries, the pages, the sergeant-at-arms, the doorkeepers, and the visitors in the gallery.

May the work of our minds, hands and hearts be offered as our sacrifice of love to You.

In the names of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
